

The Columbia Hip Surface Replacement Protocol:

During the last eight years performing hip surface replacement, we have developed a comprehensive program to minimize complications, minimize transfusions, keep the patient comfortable, and allow rapid recovery after this surgery. This has allowed us to treat many patients from all around the country with only a brief stay in the Columbia area for their surgery.